PRESS RELEASE

Smith Phillips Building Recognized as 2010 Dealer of the Year by Southern Building Material Association (SBMA)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Winston-Salem, NC – Smith Phillips Building Supply, headquartered in Winston-Salem, NC, received SBMA's 2010 Dealer of the Year Award at the Building Products Buying Show February 3, in High Point, NC. SBMA members receive nominations for the award based on community involvement, involvement in industry related activities, contributions to SBMA and/or National Lumber and Building Material Dealers Association (NLBMDA), and overall business success and accomplishments.

"Smith Phillips Building Supply earned SBMA's Dealer of the Year Award by being one of the most active participants and supporters of our association," said Larry Adams, president of SBMA. "Their involvement in all areas of our industry and association made them a great choice. We congratulate all the employees at Smith Phillips. SBMA appreciates you."

"This is truly one of the highest honors that this company has ever received," said Mickey Boles, president and CEO of Smith Phillips. "I am very proud of each of my employees, as we strive each day to give back to our industry and the community in so many different ways."

An independent, locally owned and operated business, Smith Phillips Building Supply has been serving the Triad area since 1880. Their Winston-Salem and Statesville locations offer the same high quality selection of building supply products and quick on-site delivery that have been hallmarks of their service for over 130 years. Smith Phillips Building Supply also offers roofing products, engineered wood products, windows and doors, and interior millwork. To learn more about Smith Phillips, visit www.smithphillips.net.

SBMA represents building materials dealers in North Carolina, South Carolina, Virginia, and Tennessee.
